

Back of Beyond

The color of honey is the light
It's afterglow of that dream last night
Urgent message came with the dawn
But by then, I was as good as gone

It feels like a magnet pulling me
It's always there—it won't let me be
That place in the back of beyond
Is calling now: I'm as good as gone

Driftin' along with a stream of ease
But there's a great current underneath
Wilderness beckons, I respond
I'm not there yet, but I'm as good as gone

Like the lone lobo, I travel light
You never know when you must take flight
There's a haven back of beyond
It's calling me, now I'm as good as gone

She's waitin' in the back of beyond
When I see her I'll be as good as gone
