

Common Ground

© 2009 Gordee Headlee

I belong to no tribe at all
I am bothered with no bound'ries
I live within no citadel
There are no ramparts around me

No, my hair does not look like yours
My skin's a bit different, too
My eyes are not like yours at all
But they see the same sky that yours do

'Cause I'm an Earthling
Just like you
Yeah, I'm an Earthling
I'm an Earthling just like you

Power hungry fools will tell you
It's great to hate your enemy
But we're both standing on common ground
We both come from Adam and Eve

'Cause we are Earthlings
You and me
Yeah, we are Earthlings
We're both Earthlings, you and me

I do not care what tribe you're from
What sect or clan you belong to
For I know the blood in your veins
Like mine, flows to the sea of truth

'Cause you're an Earthling
Yeah, me too
Yeah, we are Earthlings
We are Earthlings, me and you

We all are Earthlings
All the small creatures and the big ones, too
Yeah, we're all Earthlings
The same sky that watches you watches me, too
