

Kai-Yai-Yai

It was a placid night
Under a moonlit sky
Then through the calm, clear light
Came an urgent kai- yai-yai
At first I couldn't tell
Could be a ringing bell
Shaking my slumber's spell
Something somewhere was not well

Connection, slip-away connection
Losin' you now
Fade-away connection
Static on the line
Can not seem to find
A way for correction
Will we always have a connection?

I woke and realized
It was coyotes' cry
They're singin' to the sky
A song like yours and mine
The way it used to be
Ya know, it still tugs me
There was a harmony
That just won't let me be free
Connection...

When you are out some night
And hear coyotes cry
They're singin' sweet and high
That song was hers and mine
The way it used to be
Ya know, it still tugs me
And like a rhapsody
Someday I'm gonna be free
Connection...
