

Tunnels End

Won't you let me
Tag along, please
On this ride with you
I don't know where
You're going there
But perhaps you do

When the tunnel seems endless and hopeless
I will be by your side
When the darkness seems deepest and coldest
We will both find the light
May be dim, may be bright

Thanks for lettin'
Me in and gettin'
To ride on with you
Don't know this route?
The trail of truth
Has led me to you

Ain't it funny how parallel journeys
Sometimes merge into one
As long as the eternal flame's burning
We'll ride into the sun
But the ride's never done

Won'tcha let me
Drive for now, please
On this ride with you
Through the crosswinds
Around each bend
Surely we'll get through

When you feel you're at odds with the forces
I will be by your side
Try to get a hold of all your horses
Make the most of the ride
All your tears will be dried

Ain't it funny how parallel journeys
Sometimes merge into one
As long as the eternal flame's burning
We'll ride into the sun
'Cause the ride's never done
Gonna ride in the sun
