

Wild Whirlwind

When wildflowers have gone to seed
And mild hours recall bold deeds
We reflect the glow as it recedes
Twilight comes, but we can grin
They're old yarns, but they still spin
Ridin' the wild whirlwind
We rode the wild whirlwind

I remember when you asked me
If I knew what it's like to be
On the far edge of society
And that was exactly when
I knew that we would ascend
Ridin' the wild whirlwind
We'd ride the wild whirlwind

Who knows, the day may come along
When we're both feeling pretty strong
Next thing you know, we'll be up and gone
Like those early days when
We had only time to spend
Ridin' the wild whirlwind
We'll ride the wild whirlwind
We'll ride that wild whirlwind
